Thursday, July 13

9:30 am: Morning Seminar (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) Michael on Mozart, Part 4. Join Michael White for the first of two days on Mozart's Requiem, an unfinished masterwork combining the drama of opera with the solemnity of sacred expression. $16

2:00 pm: Cooking Class II with Harrison Keevil, Chef-Owner of Keevil and Keevil Grocery & Kitchen in Charlottesville. $45, reservations and advance purchase required, 325-8292.

2:00 pm: Vocal Intensive Masterclass (Resort Location TBA) Arianna Zukerman and Giovanni Reggioli will tag-team today's masterclass, all about Mozart. Free

3:00 pm: Academy String Masterclass (Dunlop Pavilion) Experience artistic growth as Wesley Baldwin, Wintergreen's principal cellist, works with the String Chamber Music students. Free

3:00 pm: Sing with Us! Voice Class and Rehearsal of Mozart's Requiem (Rockfish Presbyterian Church) with Erin Freeman. Fee Varies

4:00 pm: Academy Vocal Intensive Seminar: Mozart Style (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) with Giovanni Reggioli. Maestro Reggioli explores the secrets to Mozart's brilliance! Free

5:00 pm: Music in Unusual Places (The Blackburn Gallery in Nellysford) A casual, short concert performed by the talented Wintergreen Summer Music Academy students. Free

6:30 pm: Mix, Mingle & Music II: Bold Bach at Bold Rock I: The Bach Sons (Bold Rock Hard Cider in Nellysford) The tradition continues! Music of the sons of the master, plus Michael White's newest string quartet. $32, reservations required. Come at 6:00 pm for the Cash Bar Cocktail (Half Hour).

Friday, July 14

9:30 am: Morning Seminar (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) Michael on Mozart, Part 5. More Mozart Requiem with Michael White. Don't miss this opportunity to study this most elusive of final compositions. $16

4:00 pm: Sing with Us! Chorus Rehearsal (Resort Location TBA) Fee Varies

6:00 pm: Festive Friday I: Composing Craft: An Evening of Brews & Strings (Devils Backbone Basecamp Brewpub & Meadows) With a jazz ensemble, string quartet, and more, this will be the perfect celebration of brews, tunes, and the Blue Ridge Mountains. Free.

Saturday, July 15

9:30 am: Music 101: Fugue State (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) Like Row, Row, Row Your Boat with fancy rules, a fugue clearly demonstrates a composer's compositional prowess. Join Peter Marshall, pianist for the Atlanta Symphony Chorus, for a user-friendly discussion of fugues, particularly the choral fugues in Mozart's Requiem. $12

9:30 am: Sing with Us! Chorus Rehearsal (Resort Location TBA) Fee Varies

Participants. Mozart from beginning to end: We begin with Mozart's first symphony, written when he was only 8 years old, and conclude with his final musical statement, the stunning – and never finished – Requiem. $42

Sunday, July 16

10:00 am (Activities) and 11:00 am (Concert): Coffee & Kids II: Mendelssohn and Mozart (Dunlop Pavilion) Violinist Elisabeth Adkins and pianist Edward Newman join forces to perform the Double Concerto of Mendelssohn – written when he was only 14! Conducted by Italian Maestro Giovanni Reggioli. Plus, Vocal Intensive students perform arias by Mozart. Come early to play musical hopscotch on a giant piano keyboard, musical bean-bag toss, and more. $27 ($11 for ages 10-18; free for children under 10)

1:30/3:00/4:30 pm: Special Event: Vines & Violins: A Journey through the Senses (Veritas Vineyard & Winery) Join WPA Artistic Director Erin Freeman and the masterminds of Veritas Vineyard as they explore the effects of wine and music on mood, perception, and emotions. Featuring a string quartet of Wintergreen Festival Artists and a thoughtfully curated program of wine and music. $20, $5 for Weekend, 7-Day, and Festival Season Passholders

6:00 pm: Festive Friday I RAINDATE: Composing Craft: An Evening of Brews & Strings (Devils Backbone Basecamp Brewpub & Meadows) See Friday. Free

Monday, July 17

9:30 am: Morning Seminar (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) Michael on Mendelssohn, Part 1. Felix Mendelssohn is credited for rediscovering Bach and getting his music into the mainstream. Michael White gets you primed for Mendelssohn with some music of Bach, specifically the music you'll hear on Thursday's Bold Bach at Bold Rock II concert. $16

10:00 am: Academy Conducting Masterclass (Dunlop Pavilion) with the Fellowship String Quartet. The conducting students begin their weeklong masterclass journey with a small ensemble, featuring the 2017 Fellowship String Quartet and a pianist. Free

7:00 pm: Academy Conducting Masterclass (Dunlop Pavilion) with the Academy String Orchestra. As the ensemble expands to include all of the Academy strings, there is more for the conductors to juggle. Come watch Maestro Yampolsky, one of the most sought-after teachers in the country, work with the six conducting students. Free

Tuesday, July 18

9:30 am: Morning Seminar (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) Michael on Mendelssohn, Part 2. More on J.S. Bach, Mendelssohn's greatest influence. $16

10:00 am: Academy Conducting Masterclass (Dunlop Pavilion) with the Academy String Orchestra. The final masterclass before the evening's Academy concert. You'll be amazed at the progress these young musicians make. Free

2:00 pm: Academy Conductors' Summit Seminar: Working with the Concertmaster (Michael White Performance Center in Lot 2) with Elisabeth Adkins. The concertmaster is the conductor's best ally. Come learn about the role of the concertmaster and find out all of the ways that she subtly co-leads every rehearsal and concert. Free

2:00 pm: Cooking Class III with Dean Maupin, Chef-Owner of C&O Restaurant in Charlottesville. $45, reservations and advance purchase required, 325-8292.
