

THE SHAMOKIN COURSE
Hole by Hole Description

No. 1	Par 4	Black 442	Blue 418	White 400	Gold 360	Red 360
This arduous dogleg-right features mounding from the tee to the turn, where two bunkers guard the corner. The far left finds out-of-bounds. A triangular ridge creates slopes for three distinct putting areas.
No. 2	Par 4	Black 396	Blue 380	White 372	Gold 360	Red 338
The landing area fits between a bunker complex on the left and the menacing mounds lined up along the right, with OB on both sides. The oblong green is laid out diagonally, creating a shallow target, between bunkers.
No. 3	Par 3	Black 181	Blue 155	White 145	Gold 145	Red 121
Nestled along the banks of Stoney Creek and surrounded by trees, this scenic shot to a shallow green must avoid the false front, which drops all the way down to the creek.
No. 4	Par 4	Black 578	Blue 527	White 495	Gold 460	Red 449
A narrow straight, crowded by trees on each side, leads to the start of a dogleg left. The routing follows bunkers and mounding to a small, elongated green, virtually engulfed by trees, with bunker complexes on each side.
No. 5	Par 4	Black 355	Blue 334	White 325	Gold 325	Red 290
Visually stunning as it climbs toward a naturally framed mountain backdrop, the uphill fairway is cut short by Stoney Creek and heavy mounding. It's a full carry to the elevated, sloping green, which is fronted by bunkers.
No. 6	Par 4	Black 416	Blue 383	White 352	Gold 318	Red 318
Wide and welcoming off the tee, this dogleg right slips through the tree lines and mounding. Stoney Creek cuts in front of the green, which is a tight target and drops sharply in front, directly toward the water.
No. 7	Par 3	Black 202	Blue 199	White 180	Gold 134	Red 114
Dramatically downhill, with a 150-foot change in elevation, the tee rests atop a pocket on the mountainside, with a rustic barn on the adjacent farmland. Huge kidney-shaped bunkers curl along each side of the green.
No. 8	Par 5	Black 516	Blue 491	White 473	Gold 413	Red 413
This long dogleg left presents an angled landing area, flanked by bunkers. The corner can be carried, offering a shot at the green in two. But a severe bunker complex buffers access to the green, adding risk to any strategy.
No. 9	Par 4	Black 460	Blue 435	White 410	Gold 370	Red 370
A tight chute leads from the tees to the turn of this sharp dogleg left. A wide landing area narrows as the curve begins, with trees and mounds guarding on the right. Mounds and bunkers barricade each side of the green.
