

Market After Hours

Thursday, Apr 30 | 5:30pm-7:00pm

Join us for Market After Hours, an easygoing evening of live music, fresh flavors, and good company.

Eli Nichols of Oystercatcher Sea Farms returns with fresh and roasted oysters, plus great insight on his personally cultivated Revival Oyster. Purchase some un-shucked oysters to take home with you, or enjoy them with us and a cold beverage at The Market.

While you are enjoying those oysters, listen to melodic tunes from local singer-songwriter Ben Reade, whose sound blends jam band roots with laid-back folk vibes.

Featured products available for purchase:
